Gloucester is 32 miles north of Boston. Follow Route 128 North to Gloucester until you come to a rotary. Go half way round the rotary and continue on the highway to another rotary. Go half way round the second rotary and continue on the highway straight through Gloucester's only two traffic lights. Follow signs for Rocky Neck onto East Main Street and proceed a little less than one mile. Rocky Neck Avenue is on the right. We're 400 yards down Rocky Neck Avenue on the right, #43.

*R*ocky Neck Accommodations offers 11 distinct room arrangements, each with original (1890) exposed beams, queen or king sized beds, private bath, kitchen facilities, private decks, wireless internet, and water views. On the water at Rocky Neck Accommodations means on the water. A futon or sleep sofa can accommodate an extra person(s) in seven units.

Located in the historic Rocky Neck Art Colony on Smith Cove in Gloucester Harbor, it is only a short walk to galleries, shops, restaurants, entertainment, beaches and professional theatre. Good Harbor and Niles beaches are easily accessible as are Gloucester's museums, monuments, whale watches, fishing trips and island tours.

Dockage at our private floats is limited and arrangements must be made in advance of your stay. Bring your kayak or inflatable to enhance the experience.

Call 978-381-9848 or 978-804-0562 for more information and to reserve a room.

The Penthouse Apartment has expansive views overlooking Smith Cove.
